EXECUTION OF FRANK FERRIS. SCREES AND INCIDENTS BEFORE AND AT THE EXECUTION.

The gallows, again, for the third time within a very w meeks, occupies a prominent column in our morning issue.

The devices of the counsel for Ferris were not yet exhausted, although they had been successful in giving him sixteen months more of life. Mr. Kintzing now made an application to the Governor for a commutation of the sentence of death to imprisonment; this was dealed, but, upon representations made by counsel, and substantiated by the spiritual advisers of Ferris that he was totally unprepared to die, Gov. Fenton granted a second respite for two mouths, stating in the most positive manuer that he should under no circumstances interfere again. How well the Governor kept his work, the execution of yesterday attests.

HIS LAST MOMENTS.

All Thursday night Father Duranquet was with Ferris, rendering such last offices as are appropriate, and rending with him prayers suitable for a man i.i his position, and striving in every way to prepare the unfortunate man to die.

His children were, at his request, sent for by Sheriff Kelly, and they spent a part of the evening with him. These children are three—two boys and a girl. Of them, but one is his own, the other two being step-children. One of these was brought SINGULAR STORY .- Capt. Ulman, of the Eleventh Police Precinet, reported yesterday morning to Inspecter Car-penter that on the previous evening an unknown woman secosted a boy named Michael Smith in the street, and requised him to carry a basket, which site said contained clothes, to the residence of a well-known resident of Tenth-st, between Avenues C and D. The boy compiled with the request, but on reaching the house the gentleman refused to receive the basket or contents. It was then taket to the Station-House and found to contain a fine female child about three weeks old. Attached to the clothing of the child was the following note:

"In this house my father dwells. Please take me in and use me well.

The child was taken to Pelice Headquarters and vesterday morning committed to the care of the Commissioners of Chari-ties and Correction. The gentleman at whose house it was left stremously denies any knowledge of the alleged mother, and his general reputation sustains him in his denial.

SUICIDE BY DROWNING-The body of Richard Galley, who has been missing for some days, was yesterday found floating in the North River, at the foot of Thirty-sixth-st. He wa of intemperate habits, and had several times threatened to commit suicide. Coroner Gover held all inquest, and from the statements of witnesses, it was believed that he had thrown himself into the river. A verdict of suicide by drowning was rendered.
